NOTES

1. "Tax Efficient" and "Tax Advantaged" Income means that due to the general ability of real estate owners (like Centurion Apartment REIT) to deduct capital cost allowances against income, that current taxes can often be reduced and/or deferred whereas with an interest bearing instrument such as a bond or deposit no such offset from capital cost allowances are available. In 2009, 2010, 2011, and 2012, 100% of Centurion Apartment REIT's distributions were treated as return of capital (Box 42 on a T3 Form) for tax purposes. There is no guarantee that this will be the case in the future.
2. "Rational pricing with lower volatility" means that property values are based on a methodical process involving a number of highly skilled professionals that must opine on and thus impact upon value including a) knowledgeable and professional buyers and sellers, b) third party appraisers, and c) financial institutions (that will be restricted in loan to value ratios and debt service ratios and other financial covenants). Valuation methods would follow standard valuation guidelines used in the industry and third party appraisers would be accredited professionals. Further, buyers and sellers are not casual participants in the marketplace and are risking substantial capital in a transaction given that the average equity required for a purchase would be substantially larger than that required to buy a few shares of stock in a publicly listed company. Whereas regular stock market investors need to have no specific skills, industry knowledge, infrastructure, substantial capital, substantial capital at risk in a single investment and relationships that would otherwise serve to exclude them from the marketplace, direct property investors must have these at a minimum. The participation of knowledgeable buyers, and the limitations imposed by lenders for debt service and leverage further act to constrain valuation parameters which constraints may not apply on a traded stock. This rational pricing means that in the absence of changes in property net operating income (which ceteris paribus tend to move with inflation) or capitalization rates, that valuations tend to move slowly over time in comparison to how stocks can move constantly and with great volatility over the course of the day (or any other investment horizon). As such, rational pricing would tend to be associated with lower volatility.

5. This chart only includes the performance of Centurion Apartment REIT during its period as a REIT. Given that the REIT evolved from CAPLP which was founded on March 7, 2006, readers may be interested to view a composite of the performance of CAPLP and the REIT which is available in the Investor Presentation of the REIT but was omitted here due to space considerations.
6. For partial year August 31, 2009 to December 31, 2009
7. "Rental Units" means, in the case of apartments, apartment suites, irrespective of the number of bedrooms in a suite. In the case of student housing properties, a Rental Unit is a bedroom. Thus a 25 suite student apartment building with 4 bedrooms per suite would show in the table as 100 Rental Units. This table also only shows Rental Units that are undiluted by joint ventures. Thus 100 Rental Units where the REIT has a 50% stake will show as 100 Rental Units and not as 50 Rental Units. Detailed tables breaking down the portfolio are available in the Offering Memorandum.
8. Inception date for the S&P/TSX Capped REITs Index was Oct.15, 2002, however, the back calculation pricing is available starting Dec.31,1997. Source: Bloomberg December 31, 2014. This chart is included to show the volatility of stock market indices in general, the historic correlations between the S&P/TSX Capped REIT index TR and the S&P/TSX Composite Index TR and the performance of these indices during major market corrections during this time frame.

This index is referenced as it is the longest direct property data series that Centurion Apartment REIT has found that is commonly used by institutional real estate investors. It is an annual return series that dates back to 1985. Centurion Asset Management Inc. believes that it the best available series to demonstrate the long term cash flow, capital growth and volatility characteristics of apartments as an asset class. It is an unleveraged index. PAST PERFORMANCE MAY NOT BE REPEATED.
10. On January 1, 2015, Centurion Apartment REIT ("REIT") internalized its property and asset management teams. See centurionapartmentreit.com for further details.

DISCLAIMER

IMPORTANT INFORMATION: This communication is for information purposes only and is not, and under no circumstances is to be construed as, an invitation to make an investment in Centurion Apartment REIT. Investing in Centurion Apartment REIT Units involves risks. There is currently no secondary market through which Centurion Apartment REIT Units may be sold and there can be no assurance that any such market will develop. A return on an investment in Centurion Apartment REIT Units is not comparable to the return on an investment in a fixed-income security. The recovery of an initial investment is at risk, and the anticipated return on such an investment is based on many performance assumptions. Although Centurion Apartment REIT intends to make regular distributions of its available cash to Unitholders, such distributions may be reduced or suspended. The actual amount distributed will depend on numerous factors, including Centurion Apartment REIT's financial performance, debt covenants and obligations, interest rates, working capital requirements, and future capital requirements. In addition, the market value of Centurion Apartment REIT Units may decline if Centurion Apartment REIT is unable to meet its cash distribution targets in the future, and that decline may be material. It is important for an investor to consider the particular risk factors that may affect the industry in which it is investing and therefore the stability of the distributions that it receives. There can be no assurance that income tax laws and the treatment of mutual fund trusts will not be changed in a manner which adversely affects Centurion Apartment REIT .

PAST PERFORMANCE MAY NOT BE REPEATED. Investing in Centurion Apartment REIT Units can involve significant risks and the value of an investment may go down as well as up. There is no guarantee of performance. An investment in Centurion Apartment REIT is not intended as a complete investment program and should only be made after consultation with independent investment and tax advisors. Only investors who do not require immediate liquidity of their investment should consider a potential purchase of Units. The risks involved in this type of investment may be greater than those normally associated with other types of investments. Please refer to the Centurion Apartment REIT Offering Memorandum for a further discussion of the risks of investing in Centurion Apartment REIT .
